THE WHO, WHAT, WHERE

AND WHY OF THE AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE

SAN DIEGO CHAPTER

The American Jewish Committee

Advancing democracy, pluralism and mutual understanding

"The American Jewish Committee is the dean of American Jewish organizations."

—The New York Times

We know that you're busy. The American Jewish Committee helps busy people stay informed on the big issues of the day by offering the best analysis, publications and speakers available anywhere.

WHO ARE WE?

Founded in 1906, The American Jewish Committee is the nation's premier human relations organization. For Jews in America, Israel and around the world -- and for those who have no one to speak for them -- AJC has always been a voice.

Although our top priorities are Jewish concerns, the American Jewish Committee also helps citizens of all religions, races and ethnicities live the American dream and helps promote a more tolerant and just world.

WHAT DO WE DO?

The AJC combats bigotry in all its forms, counters extremism and the terrorism it breeds, preserves separation of religion and state, protects human rights, and champions Israel's right to peace and security.

AJC helps shape opinion and policy by means of extensive outreach to political, civic, and religious leaders worldwide; ongoing media campaigns; meticulous research; and wide ranging educational and intergroup programs.

Locally and internationally, we focus on:

- Interfaith and Interethnic relations
- Church-State Separation
- Israel Advocacy
- Public Education
- Diplomatic Relations
- Coalition building

WHERE ARE WE?

The American Jewish Committee maintains 33 regional offices in major cities nationwide, and has offices in Israel and Germany.

HOW IS THE AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE DIFFERENT?

The AJC works behind the scenes and in coalition with every major religious and ethnic and civic group to build partnerships of common concern.

AJC's international diplomatic efforts, conducted year round are simply unparalleled in the Jewish world, and involve private, substantive meetings with presidents, prime ministers, foreign ministers, and UN diplomats from dozens of nations around the globe.
